Greenwood High School Presents

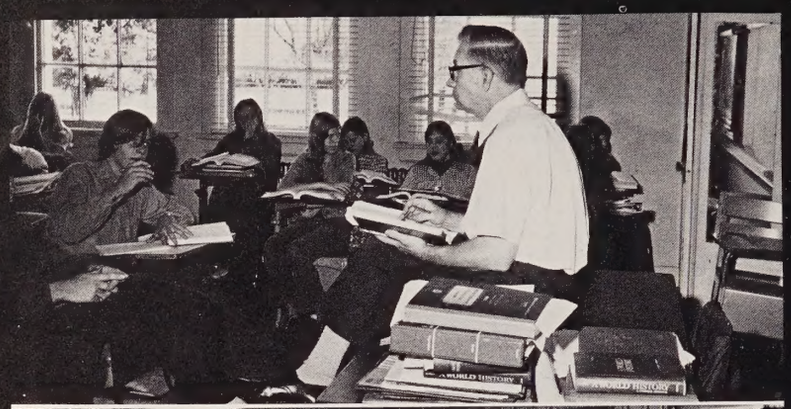
"OUR STORY"

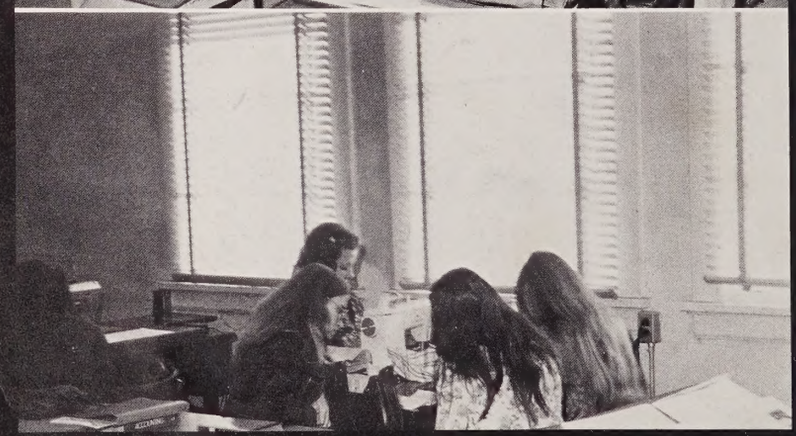
A dramatic — mystery — comedy year in four acts

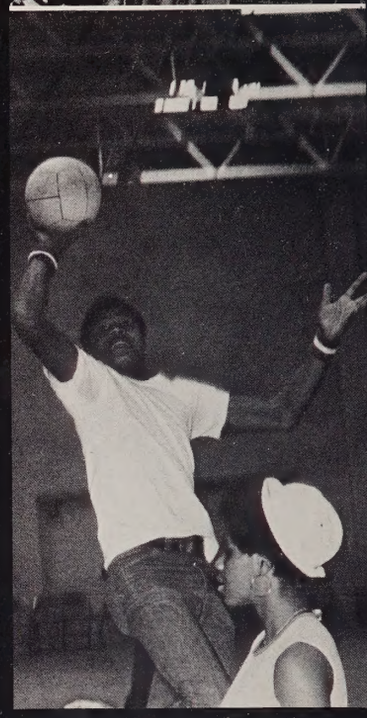
Characters — students, teachers, principals
Setting — classrooms, buses, halls, gym
Time — School Year '73-'74

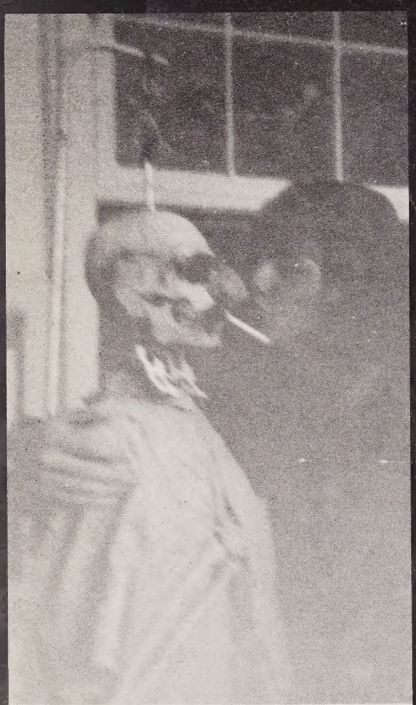
The curtain opens on Our Story August 27, 1973. We see many familiar faces from last year's cast, and new characters have come to play the parts of those we no longer see. For many it is their last beginning — they reminisce; for many it is their first — they acticipate.

Principal enters at left. He comes center stage and talks of this year's changes. "Schools to merge soon . . . no skipping to store . . . buses to park where old gym once stood . . . detention hall . . . new classes offered . . . new schedule 8:15-2:25 . . . no study halls . . . " The year has officially begun. We proceed to Act I . . .









Act I — the moral of Our Story — the reason we're here. The act where you learn your lines. You remember them: $a_n = a_1 + (n-1)d$; très bein, mercie; three types of short story conflict; endoplasmic reticulum; "and of course the punch line — "test Friday!" We've been there, so we know Act I is . . .

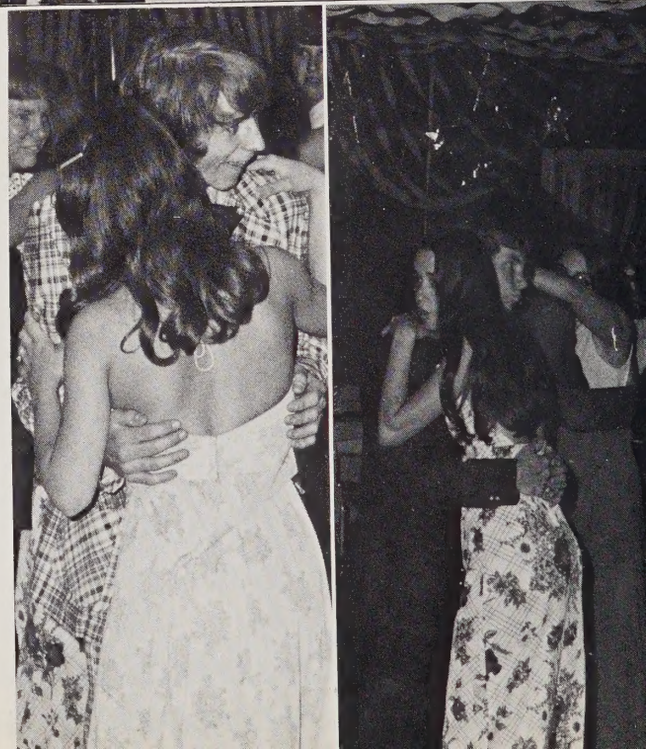
Elizabeth O. Shankle

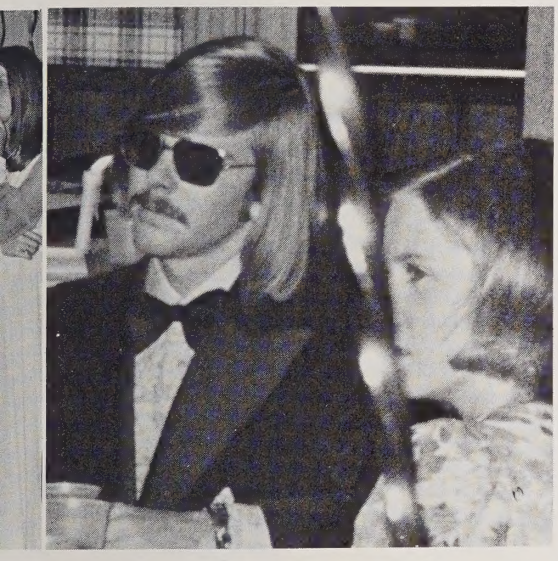
May 15, 1913 - Dec. 24, 1973

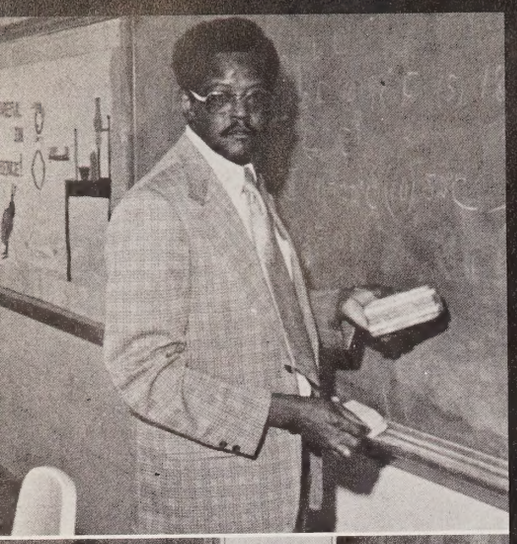
Often it is hard to find the right words to describe a person; often it is even harder to find a way to say them. For Mrs. Shankle it is easy. To describe her character you need no elaborate words. She was as real and sincere as the simple words kind, helpful, and loving. And because she did live these words, it is not only easy for us to remember Mrs. Shankle with them, it is impossible for us to forget how she worked to teach each of us their meaning.

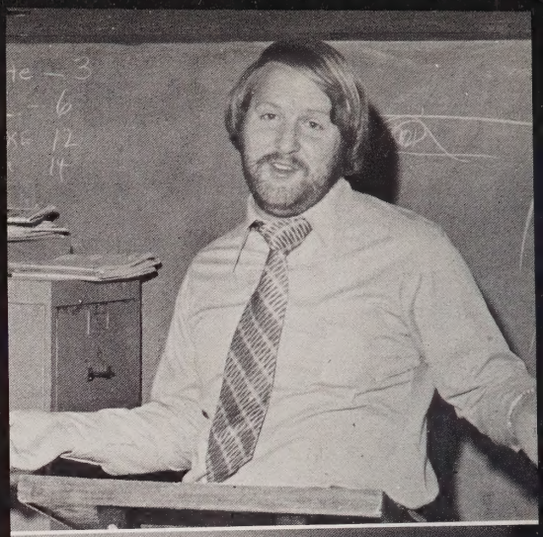
Junior - Senior

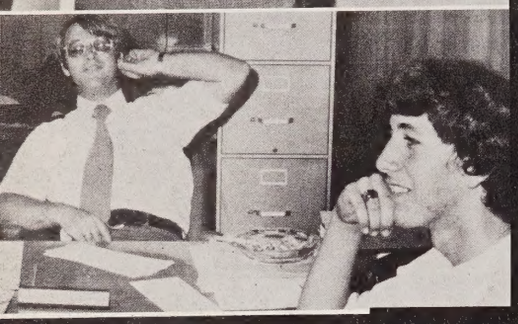
On Friday, May 4th, 1973, the Junior Class presented "Rendezvous with the Stars" with the music provided by the "East Coast Salvage".

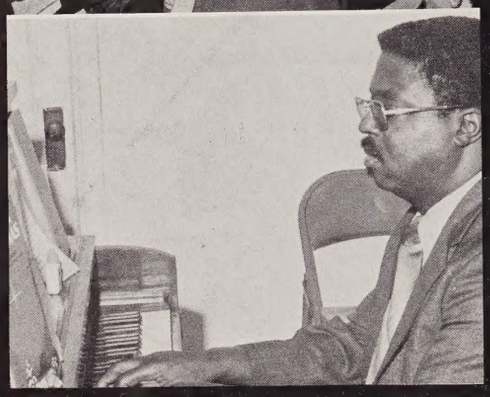


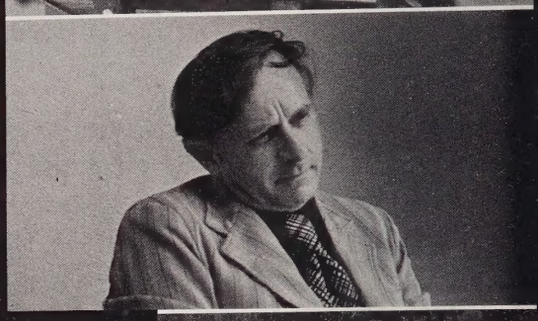




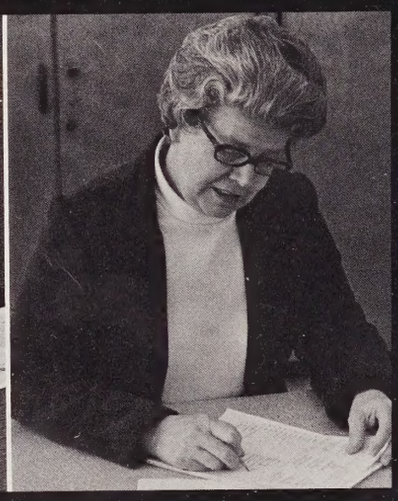


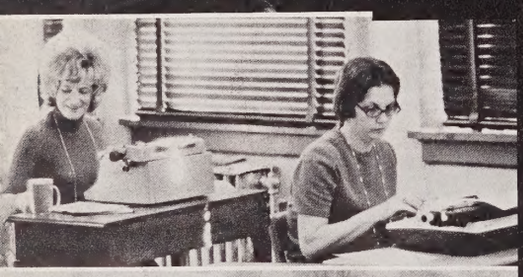


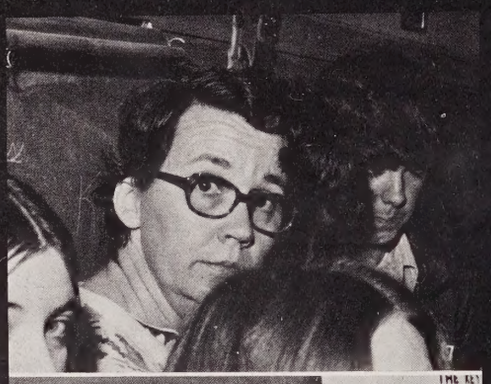


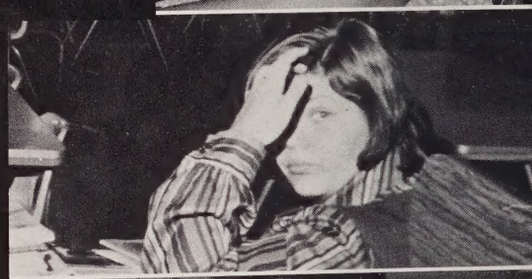


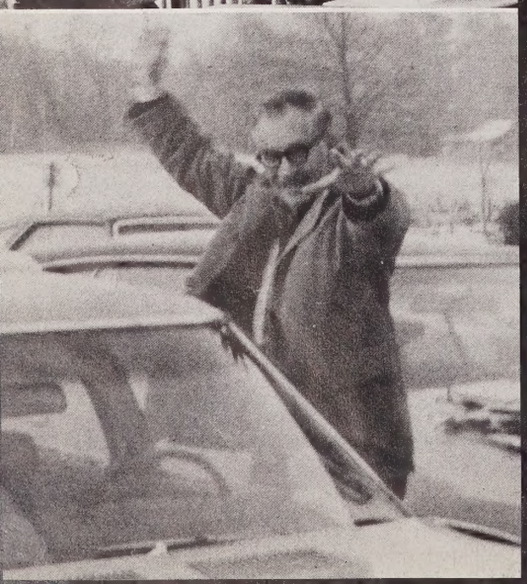
TEACHER





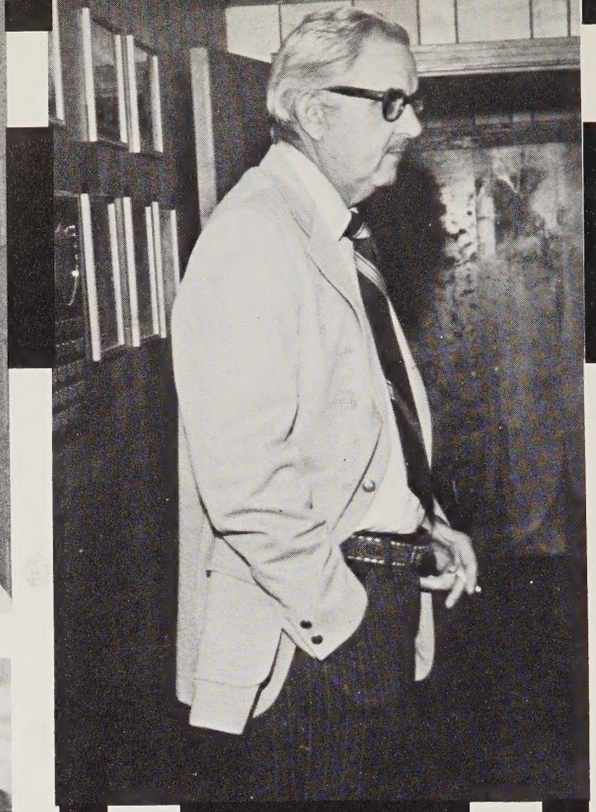


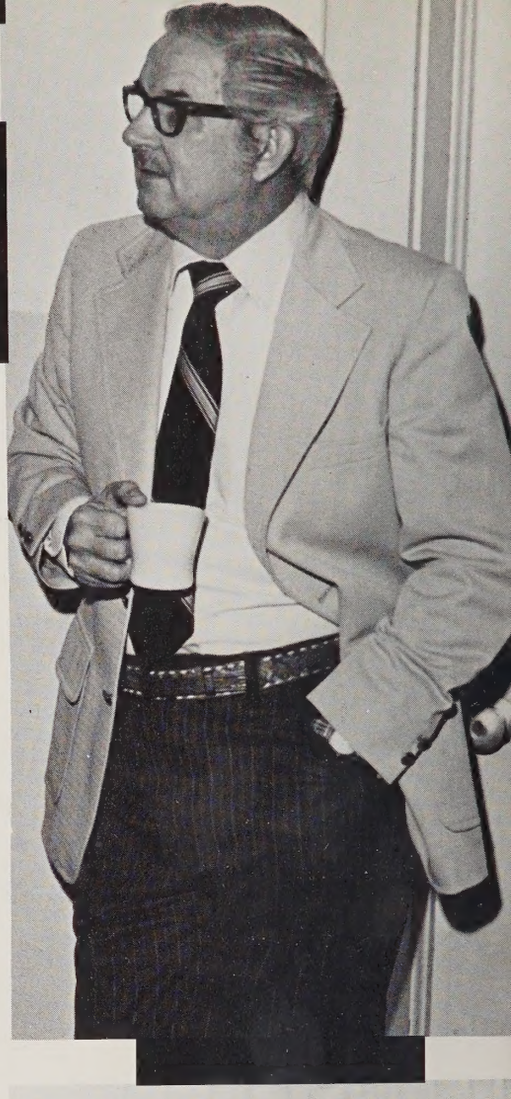


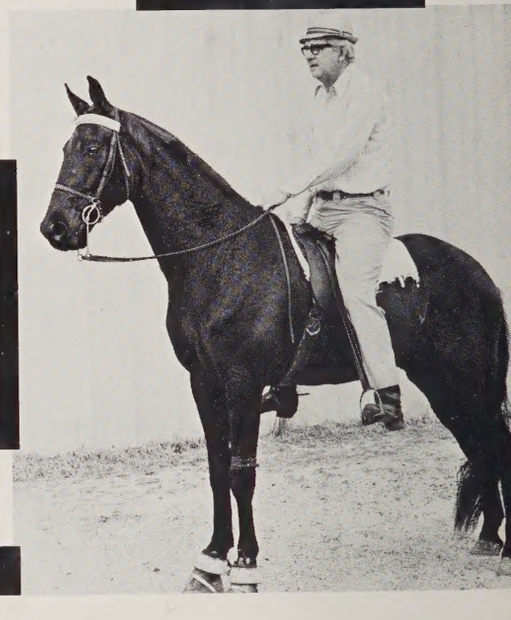


Act II — the directors of Our Story. They teach us to perform. They give us lessons in being ourselves and expressing to others who we are. They say things like, "for homework do part 2, page 112; I'll curve the grades; you can do it, it's simple; take out a clean sheet of paper; we'll go to lunch early today;" and "may I have your announcement for an attention?" It helps. They've helped us, so we know Act II is . . .

Faculty







In the fall of 1966, a new face came to Greenwood School. In this year of 1974 that face has now become a familiar one. It belongs to a man who has given eight years of his time, his energy, and his dreams so that Greenwood School might be an inspiration to all those who enter. He is a man who is concerned with the well-being and success of each student and strives to create unity among them. He maintains a sense of pride in our school and works to instill this feeling to those around him. For these reasons the staff of the 1974 Pine Cone dedicates this yearbook to a dedicated man: Mr. Robert B. Price.

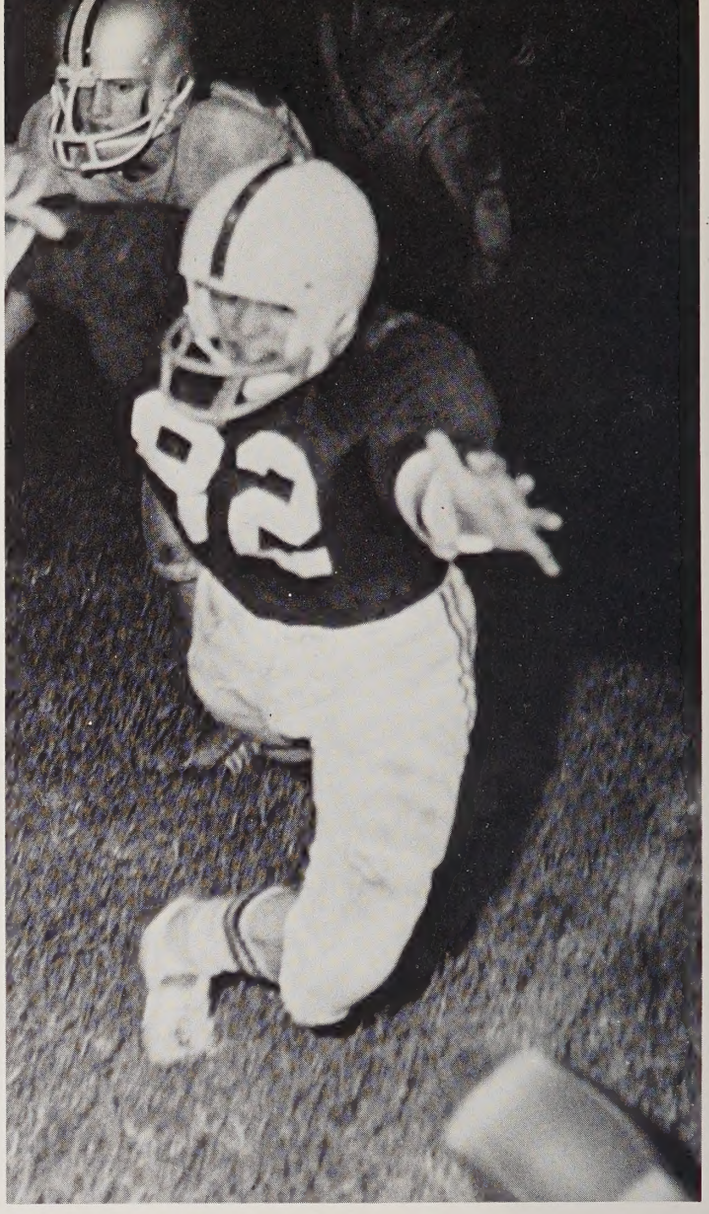
GREENWOOD
SECTION

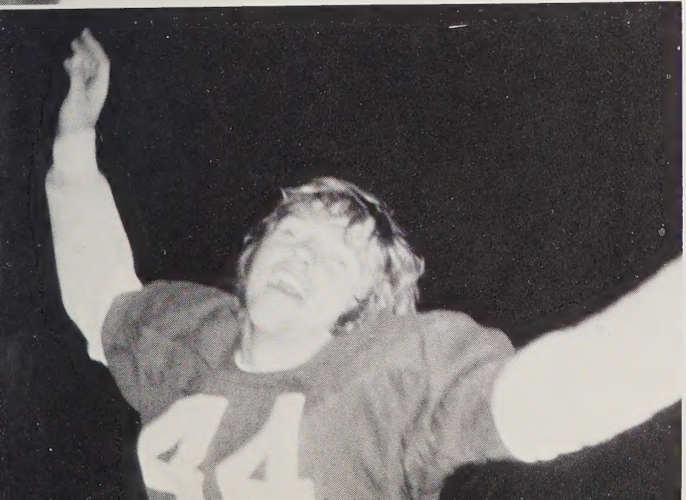
Act III — the climax. The act that gives Our Story its contrast, its flare and its excitement! The act we all love because anyone can be a star, and because everyone can yell! It's "we're number one; and when you hit'em kill'em; hustle Hornets; they're gonna be ready for you guys; a home run; we lost by one point;" and "we're behind you, go team go!" It's a desire to be "The Best." It's wanting to win. We've all wanted it, so we know Act III is . . .

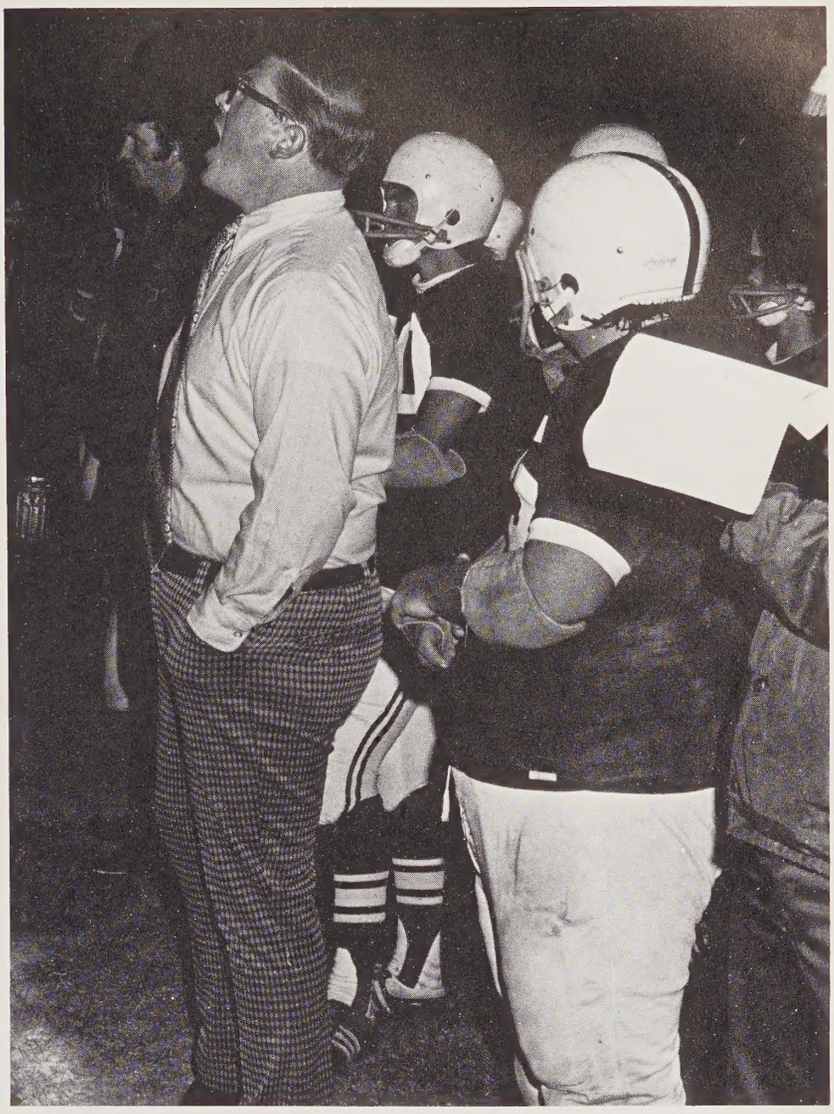
Sports

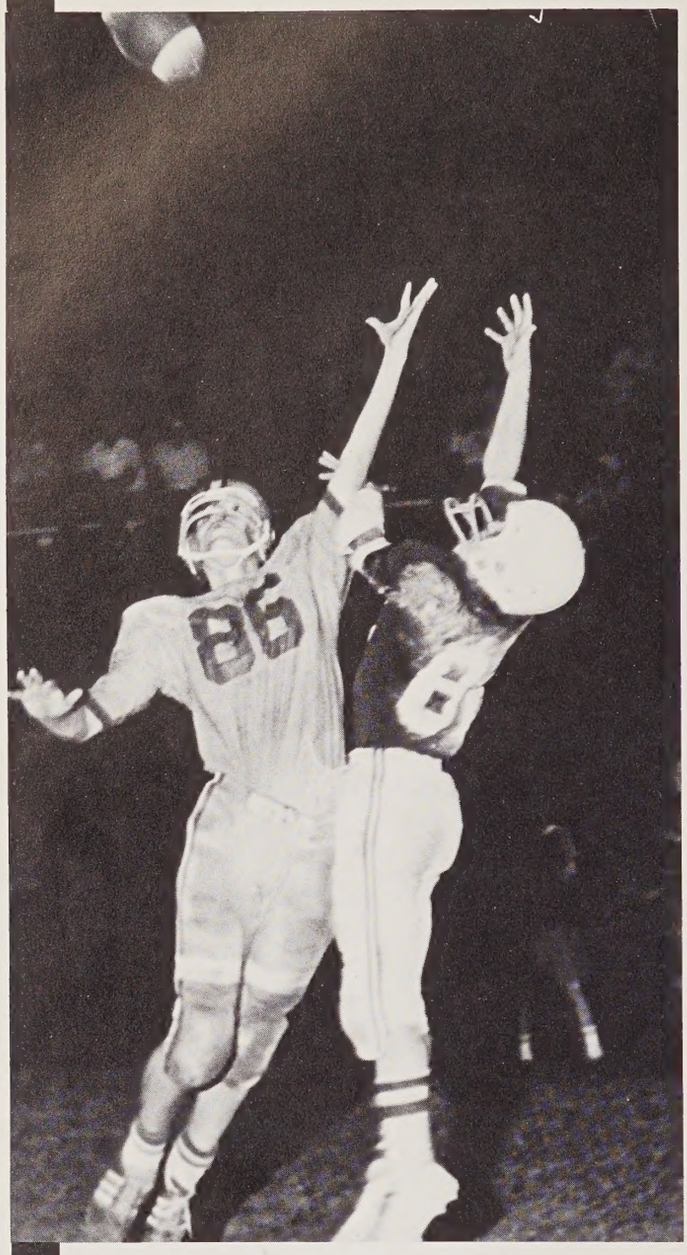
Football '73

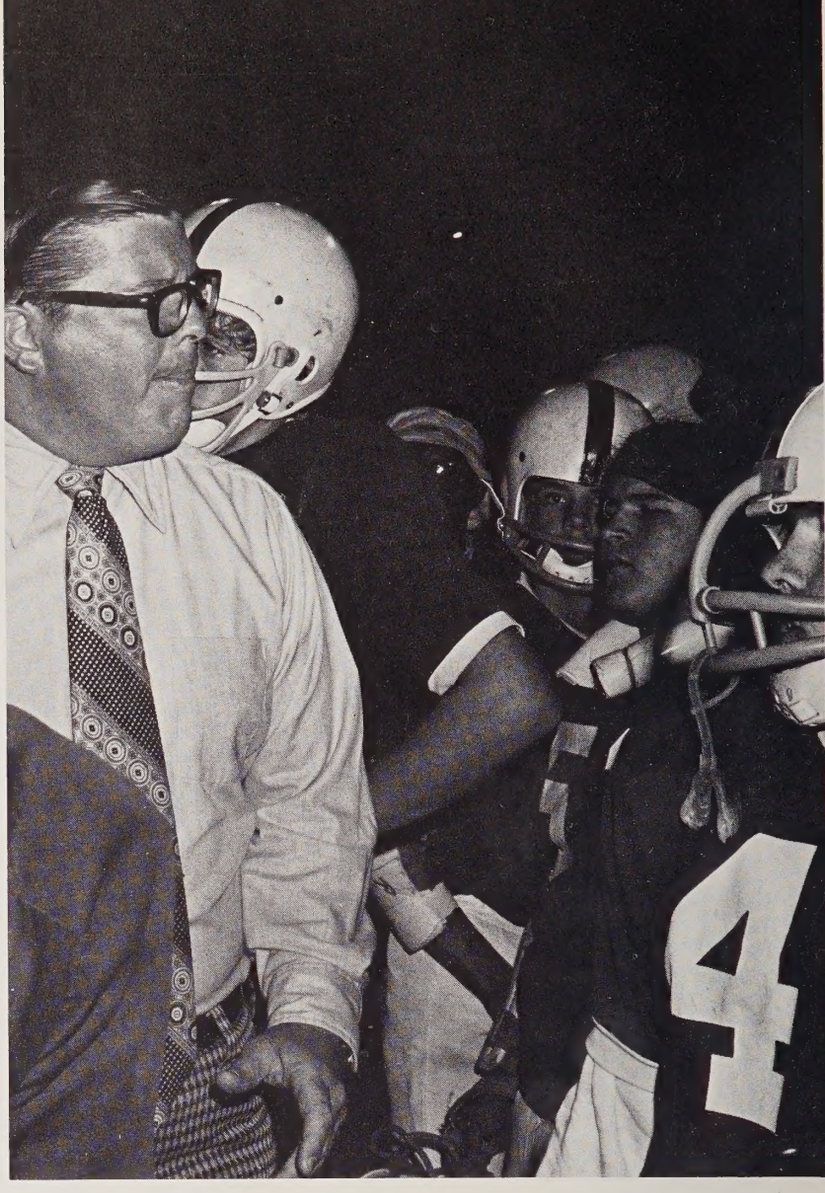


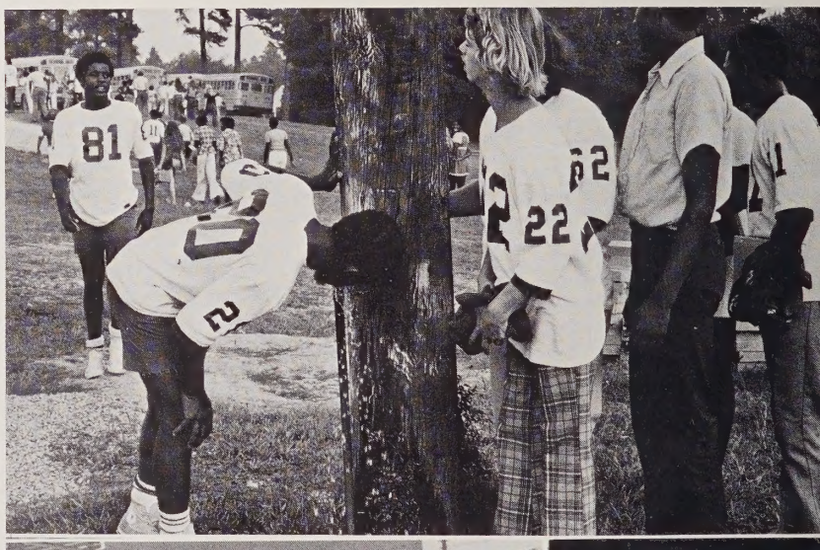
Football 73 was a new experience for the coaches as well as players. They faced new teams, some which had long been established 1-A powerhouses. Regardless of how highly touted the other team, they always hustled into the game with an optimistic outlook. The football program at Greenwood has a promising future!

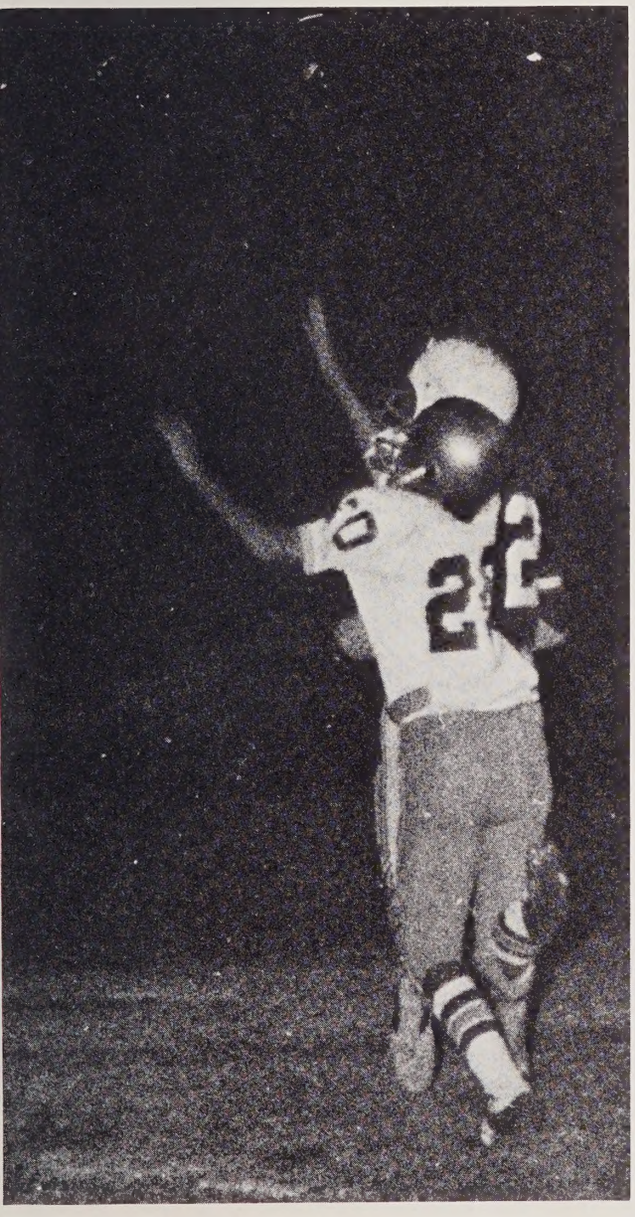












These two young men were chosen All-Conference because of the ability and leadership they exemplified while on the gridiron.

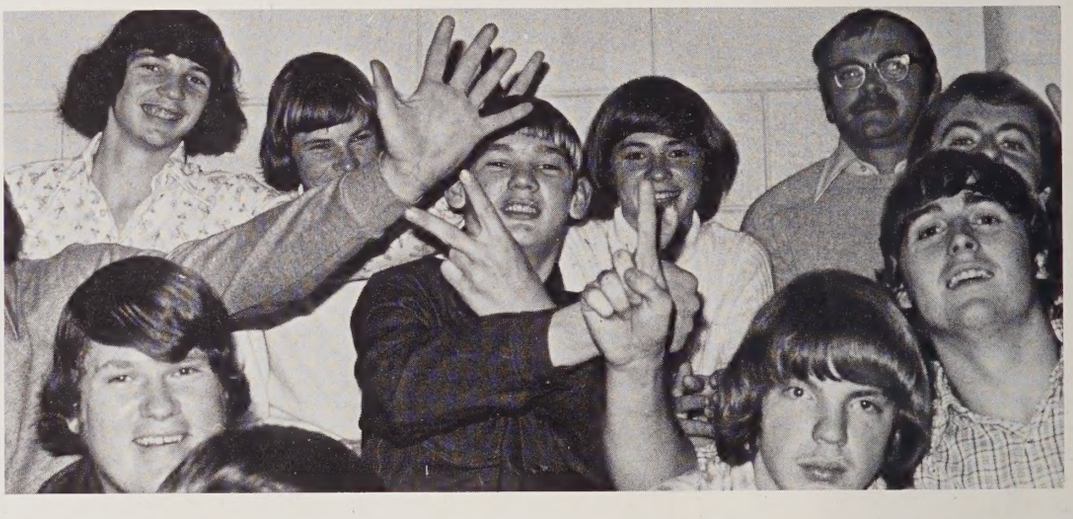
Excited fans, pretty girls, handsome escorts, loud music, wild music — they all came together on one night to bring us two game victories and great Homecoming Festivities.

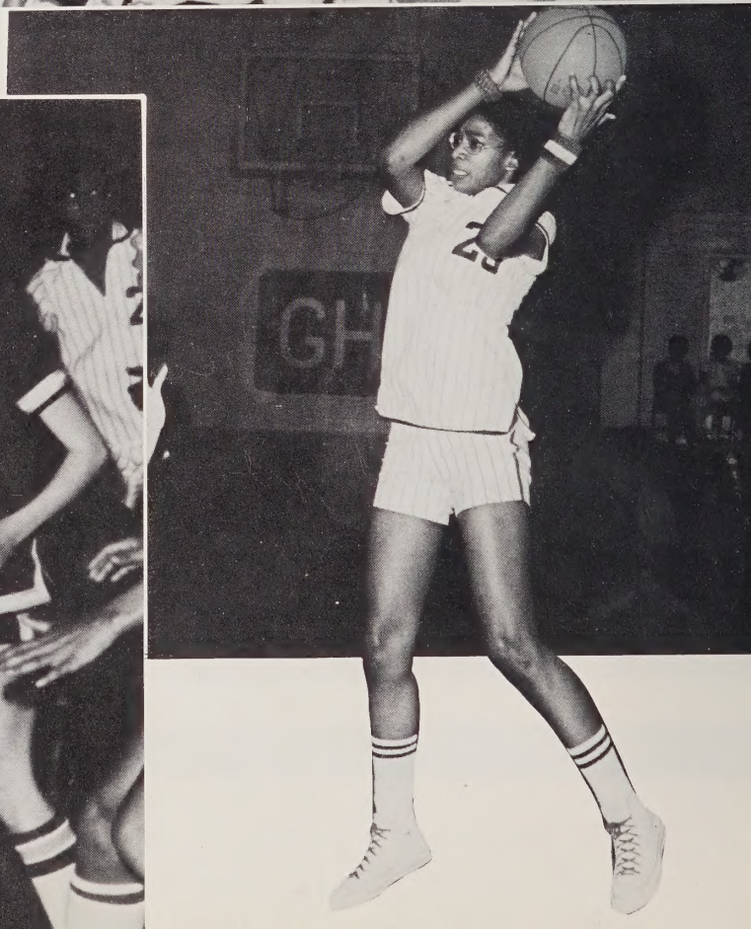
The '74 Homecoming contestants were' Freshmen' Sonya Cole, Robin Dycus, Mary Foxx, Vickie Foxx; Sophomores: Carolyn Stewart, Carolyn McIver, Phyllis Boggs, Debbie Lynch; Juniors: Shelia Dull, Darlene Faucett, Annette Willett, Carol Foushee; Seniors: Vernell Murchison, Sherry Edwards, Sue Waters, Debra Lankford.

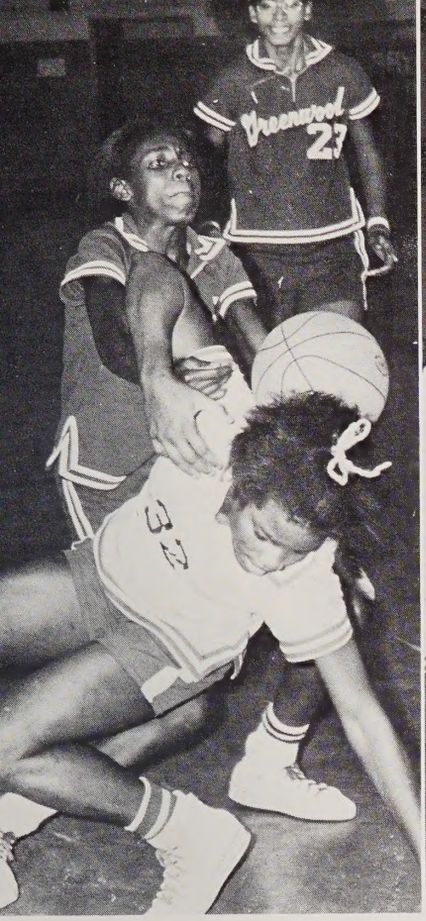
After two Hornet victories over Anderson Creek our new Homecoming Court was chosen with Robin Dycus as Lady-in-Waiting, Carolyn McIver as Dutchess, Carol Foushee as Princess, and Sue Waters as Queen.

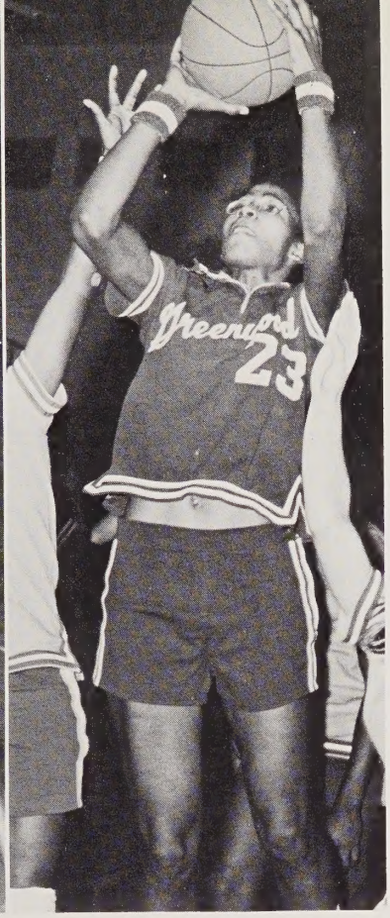
A jukebox brought in by the Monogram Club, provided music for dance and fun (as you can see) to end the evening on a happy "note"!

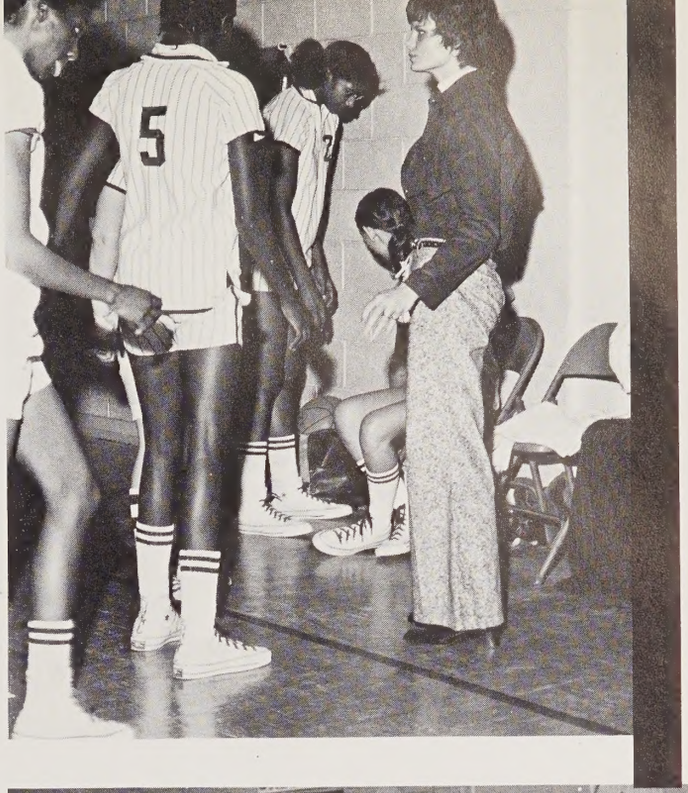


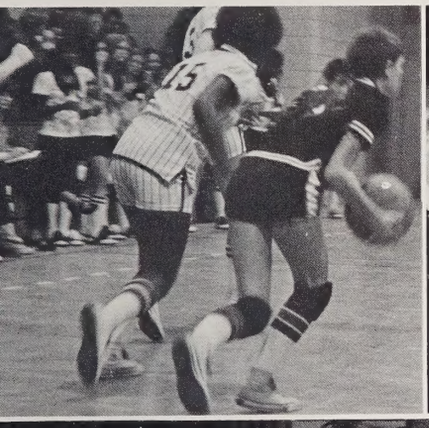
Basketball Homecoming

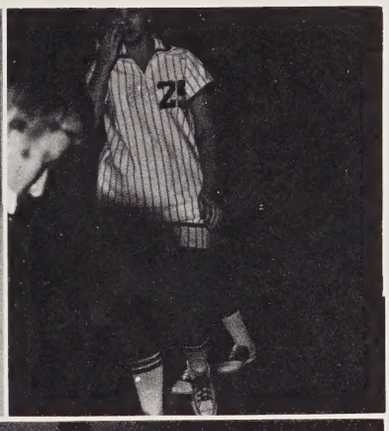


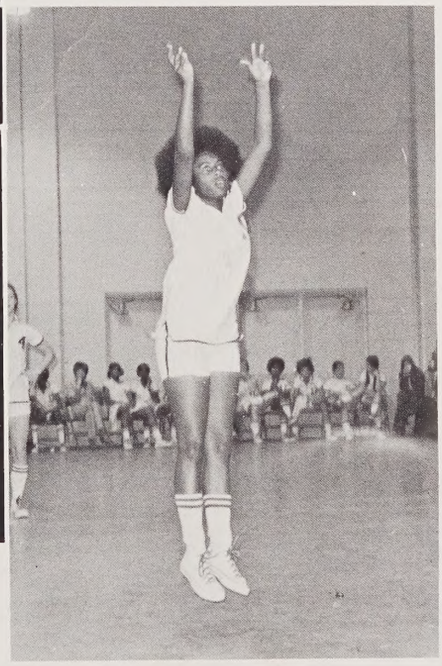








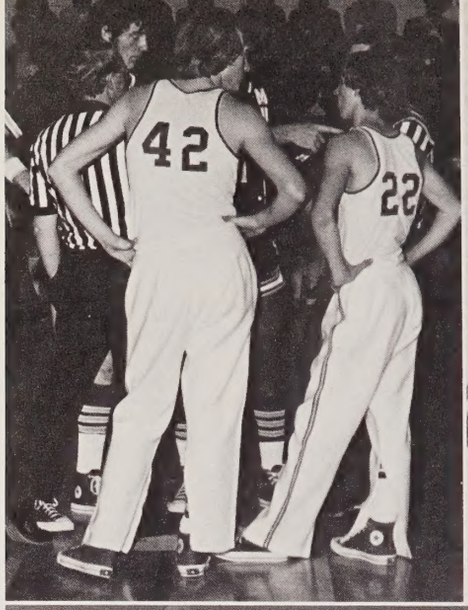


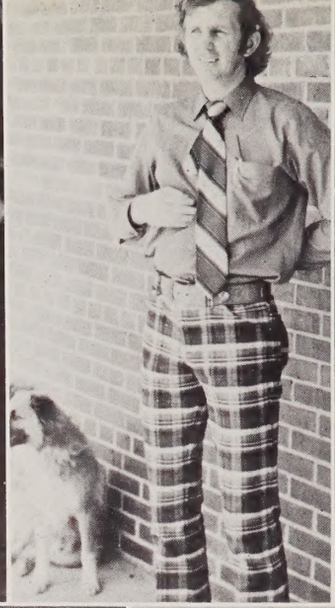


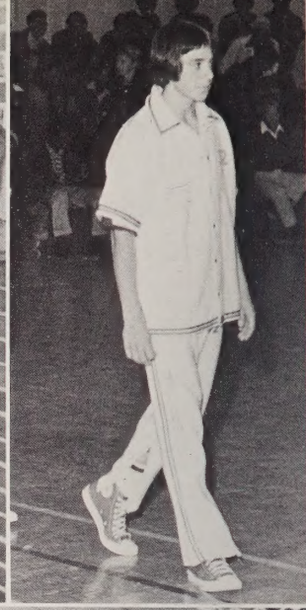
Girls' Basketball

The girl's basketball team finished the season with a 15-6 record. Although the team didn't make it to the district play-offs, all in all, everyone benefitted from the experience. The school would like to thank the entire girl's team for playing and conducting themselves in a manner that has reflected upon Greenwood School in such a way that we can all be proud.

Coach: Mrs. Linda Temple
Co-Captains: Rosalyn Raeford,
Nancy Cooper

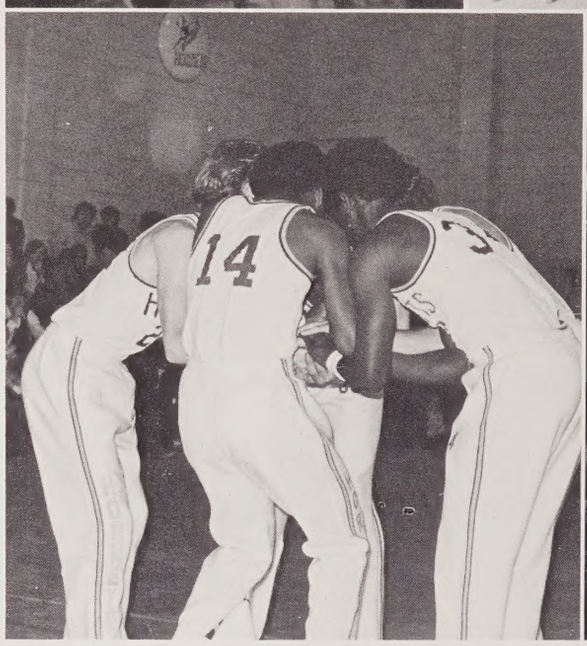


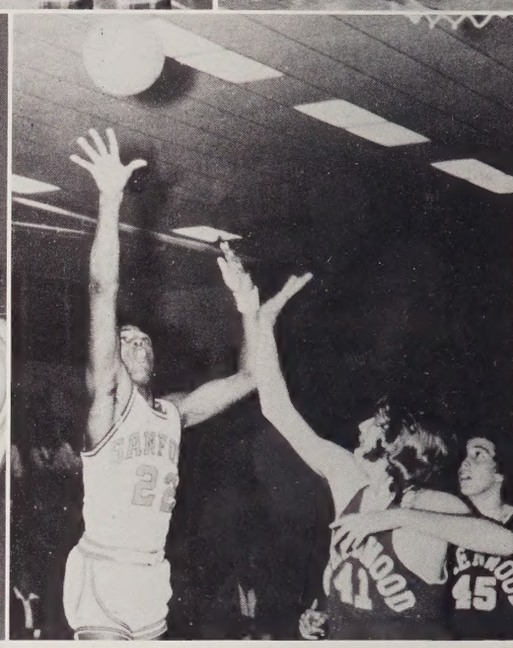




..Greenwood's basketball team took on many new faces this year. The newest and most important face was that of Coach Eddie Brafford. Coach Brafford came in and instilled in us a sense of discipline and pride. Each member of the team became his own son, and sensed a sort of brotherly love in each other, no matter what color of skin. The many hours of sweat and precision conditioning were not spent in vain, as many of our opponents felt the sting of the mighty Hornet. Whether we won or lost we all learned something we couldn't learn from books, and that is the art of pulling and working as a unit to achieve a common goal, reaching the top!

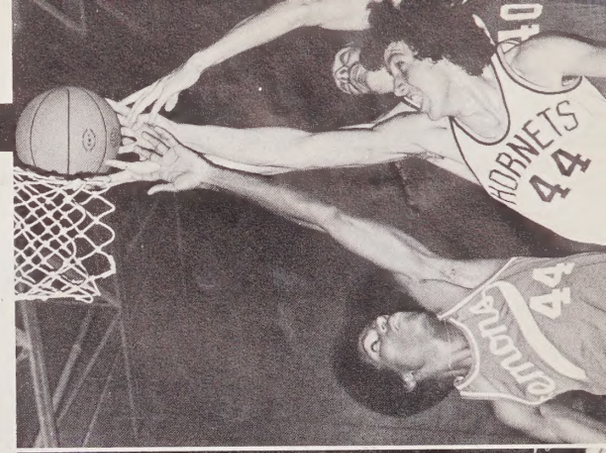
Co-captains:Jeff Yow
Mike Gaster

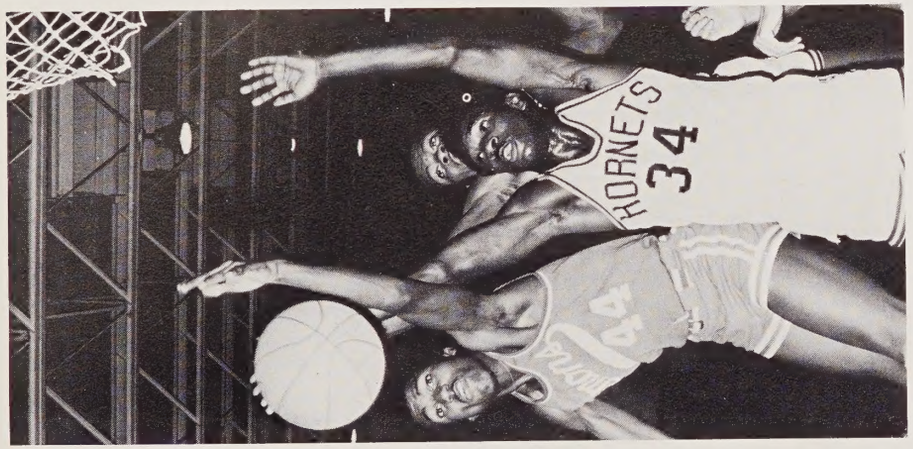


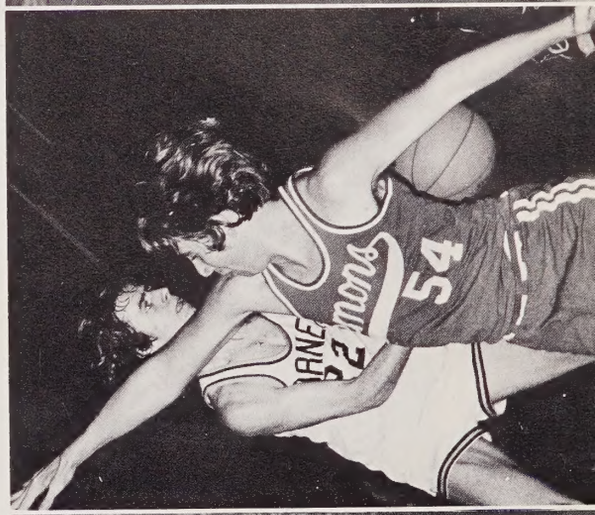


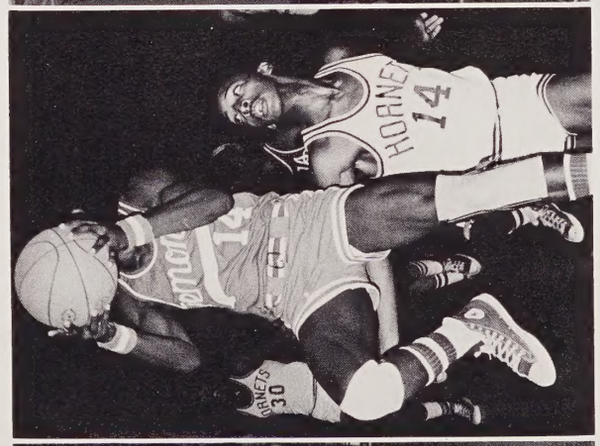
All Conference: Russell McBride; Jeff Yow; Gary Hodges.

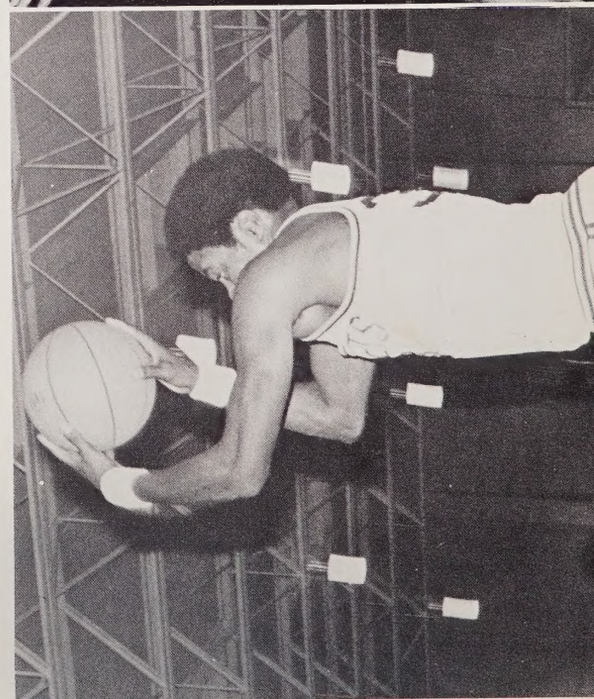
Boys' Basketball











Cheerleaders

This year the cheerleaders tried to accomplish a goal — getting the fans to yell. Sometimes the fans yelled and sometimes they did not. But the cheerleaders did put alot of time into their efforts — practicing, planning pep rallies, and learning new cheers and chants to please the fans. The cheerleaders learned alot from all their work — cheerleading is not yelling at the fans, but with them.

This year's baseball team is one of potential, featuring only 3 seniors and 14 underclassmen. Playing in a new conference the Hornets could challenge for top spot. The Hornets play a 21-game schedule and should fare well.

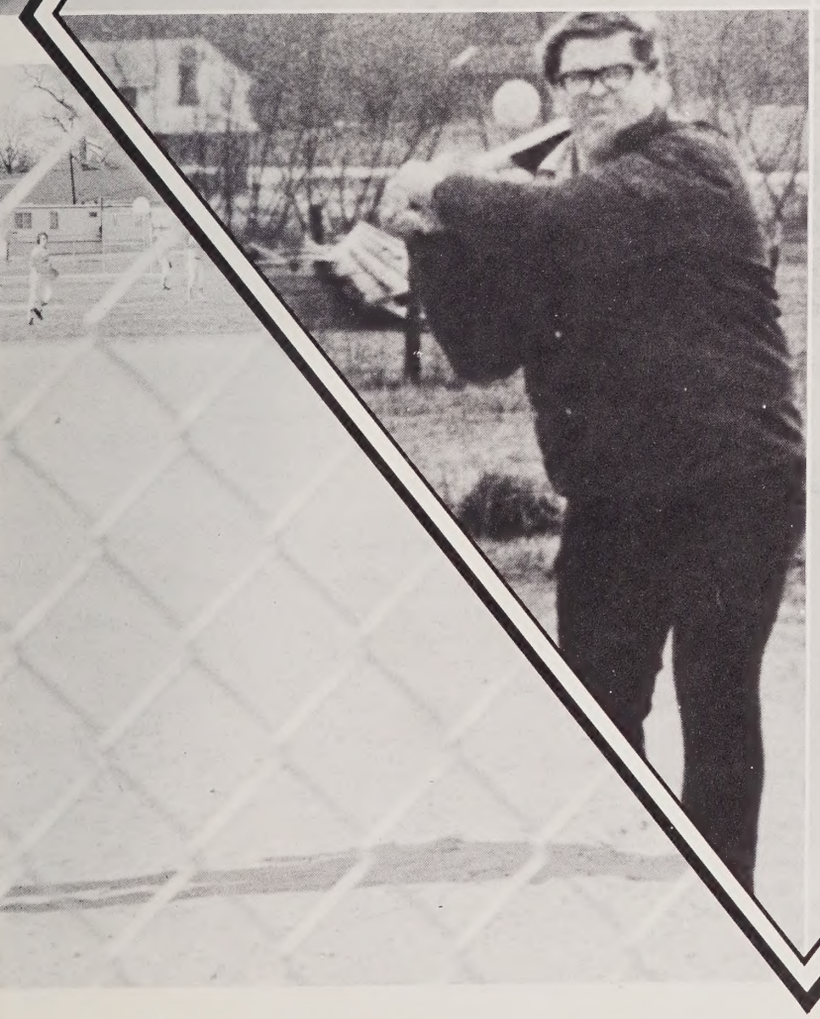
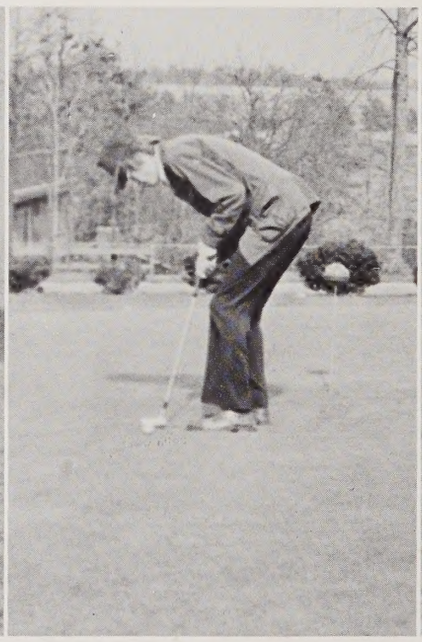
Baseball



Golf

Golf is a sport that has sometimes not received much recognition at Greemwood. However, out of the last four years of golf, G.H.S. has won the trophy twice, and who knows, after this year it could be number 3! No matter what the outcome, the Greenwood Golf Team has our support because they are all REAL SWINGERS! Coach: Mr. Charles Nash; Captain: Charles Roberts.



Junior Varsity sports may appear to be all fun and entertainment, but in actuality it is hard work and the foundation of all skilled athletes.

Act IV — the actors. Our Story is made of us, the actors, working together to portray the year. This is the act where we learn much about each other because we must face objectives together as well as share in the fun. We work together to raise money for school service projects. Remember all the times it rained on your Car-Wash Day? But it was always sunny enough on Bake Sale Day to melt the cake icing. Have you ever spent two hundred dollars for shrubbery only to have half of it die? Or how about when you sponsor a dance and no one shows up? It's happened to all of us, but we put up with it. We join because we want to strengthen a cause we believe in. We all believe in something, so we know Act IV is . . .

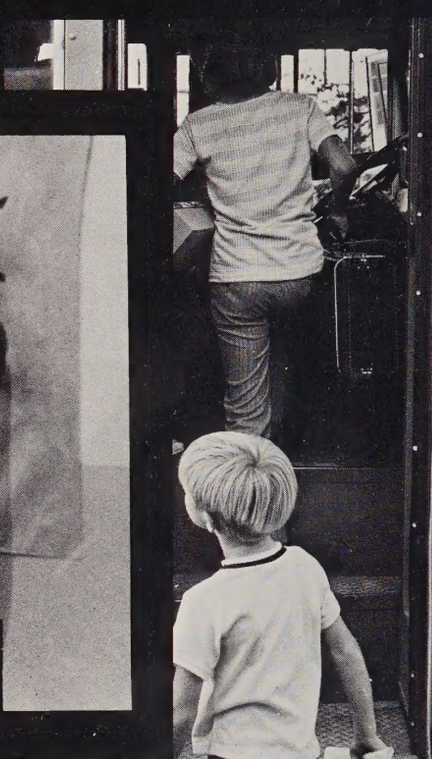
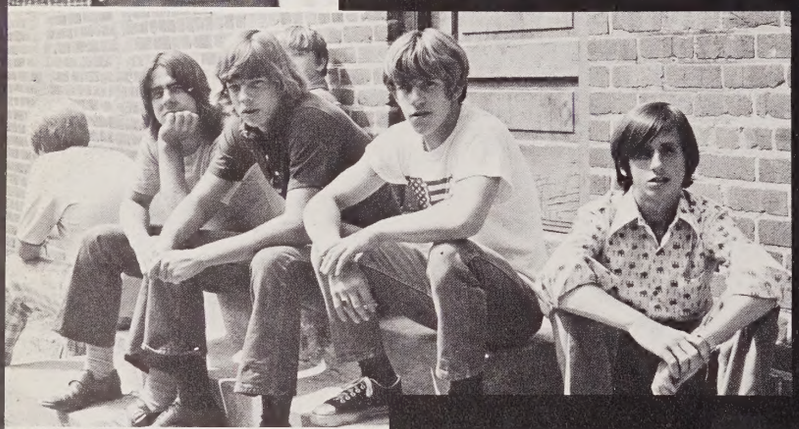
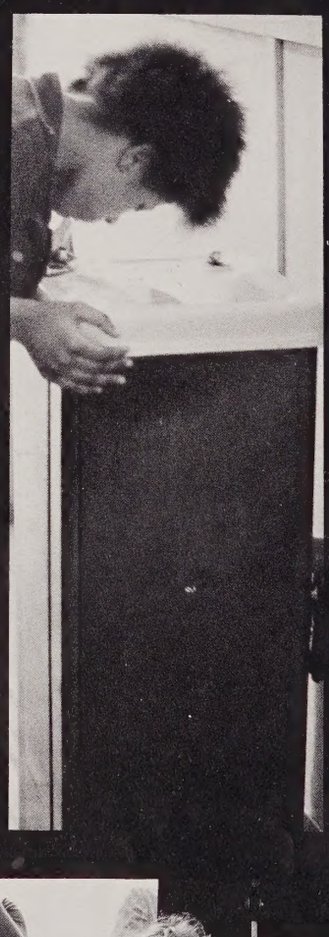
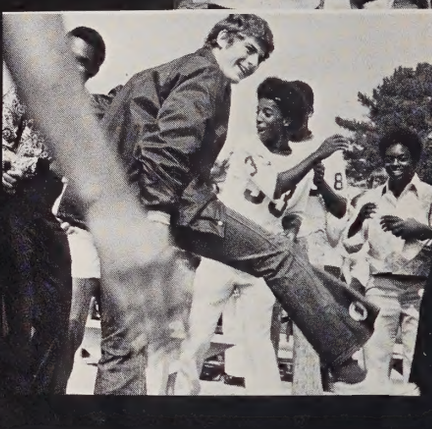
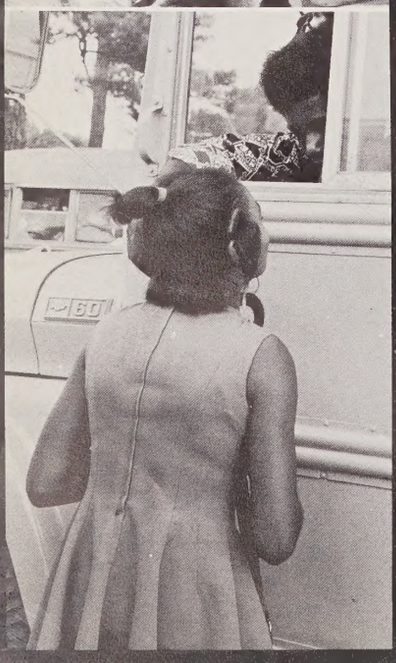
HORNE

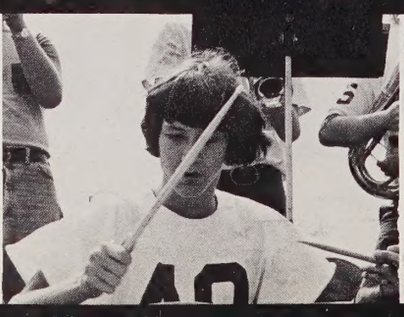












Our Story is about to end. The last senior, in his gown, is swishing across the stage. Now this year is gone with those who are going. Another year will always follow for those staying. This year may not have seemed very great to many people, but for us, it was not only greater, it was The Best, because it was Our Story. Curtain falls.

In creating your 1974 edition of the Pine Cone, the staff has aimed for our perfection and as our goal strived to satisfy you. Perfection, not in publishing, for we were amateurs in this, but perfection in portraying a true picture of Greenwood. Because you are Greenwood, you are what makes a yearbook as well. You are its voice, its emotions, and its memories. Whether we satisfy you cannot be told in this year or the next. Only after you take out Pine Cone '74 dust-caked and yellowed to relive a moment with some long forgotten friend will we have achieved our goal.

Donnie Laws; Teresa Tippett

We would like to thank Mr. Pittard for his time and assistance helping us smooth over the bumps and avoid the pitfalls we faced in the beginning. Thanks also to Mr. Williams who gave of his own time and effort to provide us with pictures which were not only inportant but a necessity. A special thank you to Mrs. Cox, a lady who is an essential part of the annual staff. Without her constant advice and consistant drive when we lagged, the Pine Cone simply would not exist. Such willingness to give is evidence of her character.

Hi Donnie
Your a real nice guy hope to be in your class next year
Gloria Jones

Donnie
good luck next year
you were a true friend
Your Friend
always Junior
Dean

Donnie,
I can't say
"to a nice fellow"
because you're not.
(I'm just kidding!)
you're a nice friend
I hope you'll stay
that way!
Love
forever.
Dale Blackburn

To Donnie,
To a sweet guy.
Cindy Hall

Donnie,
you are a very nice & kind person. Stay that way. Love,
Rhonda

Donnie,
It's been really great having you in my homeroom to talk to every morning. You had better start going to church. Hope so!
Love,
Patsy

Donnie,
You're great as a friend. The next time you bring Sir Baby to the house. I'll show you how to fall off her.
your friend,
Kelley

Hi!
You Dave?
Well, you are mean (especially to Dale) But what would our homeroom be without
you? could we find out?
